

HANDSOME CHARLIE TRAILED TO SOLVE GABIN'S MURDER

Police Work on Theory That Restaurant Man's Generosity
Led to His Death.

The police to-day are working upon the theory that his kindness and generosity led to the murder of Manuel Gabin, wealthy restaurant owner, and until recently female impersonator on the vaudeville stage and known as "the King of Spaniards," who was found yesterday afternoon shot through the heart, lying on a bed in his richly furnished apartment at Washington and West 12th Streets. Gabin is known to have befriended many who were in want.

Detectives declared that all doubt regarding the motive of the crime had been removed and that they hoped to "clean it up" within a few hours by the arrest of the young man known to them as "Charlie," with whom Gabin left his restaurant at No. 753 Washington Street at 1 o'clock yesterday morning. "Charlie," who is described as "a handsome American" was accompanied by a Spanish youth from a ship nearby. The latter has proved that he went directly back to his ship.

Everything indicated Gabin had held with his life for a single vanity one for which his many friends had frequently upbraided him—the habit of flashing three large diamond rings and a stickpin of diamonds and pearls, worth about $10,000, and always carrying large sums of money.

His rings had been torn from his fingers and his clothes stripped of $11,000, which it was known he had, when his 50-year old wife Fannie, with friends, forced the lock and found him dead.

Gabin's six-room apartment on the second floor was as lavishly furnished as a Fifth Avenue suite, with tapestries, fixtures, Oriental rugs and divans, although situated in a dingy neighborhood.

Gabin and his wife had lived plainly at No. 839 West 12th Street, and in a week Gabin was to move her to the apartment in which she found him murdered.

Gabin richly deserved his regal appellation. He was about thirty-five years old, and came to this country from Corunna twenty years ago.

Never again on the movie stunts

I WATCHED a guy.
IN A movie show.
RIDE THE same plug.
NINE THOUSAND miles.
AND FIRE his six-shooter.
ALL AFTERNOON.
WITHOUT RE-LOADING.
AND THEN, in a close-up.
HE ROLLED a smoke.
WITH JUST one hand.
AND I tried it myself.
FIRST WITH one hand.
THEN WITH two.
THEN WITH my mouth.
AND THE forty-third trial.
STAYED PUT long enough.
FOR ME to light it.
AND I thought I had it.
AND THEN it spilled.
LIKE A Roman candle.
AND BURNED the rug.
AND BURNED my clothes.
AND EVERYTHING.
SO I'M convinced.
I'LL NEVER get.
THAT ACTOR'S job.
AND I know now.
THAT THE only thing.
I CAN roll with one hand.
ARE ROLLICKING dominoes.
AND I'M going to stick.
TO MY regular smokes.
FOR THEY satisfy.

EVER see a "close-up" of real cigarette contentment? Get next to any Chesterfield smoker, and watch him register "they satisfy!" It's all in the blend of those choice Turkish and Domestic tobaccos—and that's a secret that nobody can imitate.
